GLENDALE SUMMER BAND BACK IN FULL SWING BEGINNING JUNE 1

GLENDALE, Ariz. -- Join the Glendale Summer Band Concert Series for free performances every Thursday night at 8 p.m., June 1 through July 20.

Hosted by the Glendale Parks & Recreation Department, this long-standing Glendale tradition keeps getting better every year. The free concerts are held in downtown Glendale's Murphy Park amphitheatre, located at 59th and Glendale avenues, and are also sponsored in part by the Glendale Civic Pride Ambassadors.

With more than 100 musicians, this symphony will cool the summer evening with the sweet sounds with renditions of marches, ballads and show tunes. On June 29, the band will perform a special patriotic show.

Music lovers should bring a lawn chair or blanket for lawn seating, but please leave pets at home. Refreshments will be available for purchase in the park.

For more information, contact the Parks & Recreation Department at 623-930-2820.
