‘FOOD FOR THOUGHT’ TV SHOW HIGHLIGHTS ONE-OF-A-KIND GLENDALE RESTAURANTS

GLENDALE, Ariz. – What’s for dinner? How about breakfast and lunch too? Whatever you’re craving, Glendale 11’s new edition of the television show “Food for Thought” will satisfy your taste buds and give you a visual tour of some of Glendale’s most unique restaurants. The show takes viewers on a culinary trip throughout the city going into kitchens with chefs and sitting at the table with patrons. The restaurants profiled in the new edition of “Food for Thought” include:

- A Touch of European Café - Polish fare including sour pickle soup.
- A Shot of Java – A coffeehouse where coffee, tea and art come together.
- Nostalgia’s Cancione E Vino - Italian cuisine with a Latin flair served where memories and song highlight the evening.
- Zendejas Grill – ASU and U of A football fans will remember the Zendejas family of placekickers, now they can enjoy their family’s special recipes.
- The Spicery in Our 1895 Home – The original owner of this landmark tearoom is back in historic downtown Glendale greeting guests.
- La Piazza al Forno -Authentic brick oven pizzas including one named after a queen.
- Papa Ed’s Ice Cream – 16 flavors, sundaes, ice cream pies and even treats for four-legged friends.

“Food for Thought” will debut at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday, July 12, on Glendale 11 TV and can also be seen at other times throughout the week. Viewers can also watch Glendale 11 online anytime at www.glendaleaz.com.
