GLENDALE, Ariz. – Television and online viewers can now watch the city of Glendale's dedication ceremony for the new public safety memorial on Glendale 11 TV and visit a special website to learn more about the memorial and view videos and hundreds of photos from the event.

The memorial is a tribute to Glendale's two police officers and one firefighter killed in the line of duty. The names of the fallen include:

- Fire Engineer Lester Hillis – September 7, 1974
- Sergeant Pat Campbell – September 22, 1985
- Officer Anthony Holly – February 19, 2007

On Tuesday, Jan. 4, hundreds attended a community ceremony in the Glendale Civic Center Plaza, where the memorial is located. During the event, there were tributes to each of the men, highlights about the memorial and its unique design, comments from Glendale Mayor Elaine Scruggs and special performances from the Mountain Ridge High School Honor Choir.

Glendale 11 videotaped the entire event and the new show plays daily on channel 11 and can also be viewed online at www.glendaleaz.com/video. The special memorial website can be viewed at www.glendaleaz.com/publicsafetymemorial.
