GLENDALE ANNOUNCES CITY SALES TAX AMNESTY PROGRAM

GLENDALE, Ariz. – The city of Glendale is offering a one-time opportunity of a city sales tax amnesty program to assist business owners during these challenging economic times. Beginning today through April 30, business owners and landlords can pay delinquent sales tax and license fees and have all penalties, prior delinquent license fees, interest, and related building permit penalties waived as long as all delinquent sales tax liabilities are paid to the city no later than April 30.

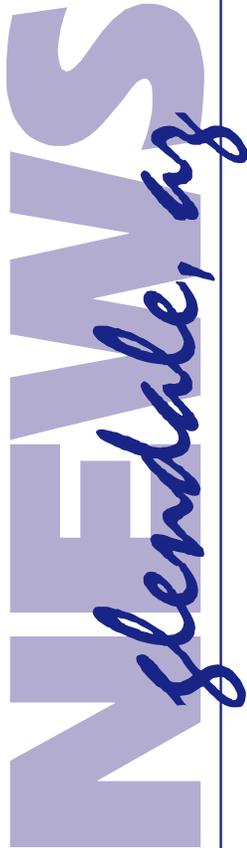

In addition, during this amnesty period, owners of rental properties who are not licensed or reporting taxes can file and pay delinquent taxes and get a license without being penalized.

Business owners and landlords can take advantage of this program in the following ways:

- In Person: Visit the 2nd floor of City Hall, 5850 W. Glendale Avenue 2 p.m. to 7 p.m., Monday through Friday
- By Appointment: Call (623) 930-4465 to schedule an appointment Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
- Online: File online at www.glendaleaz.com/etax. The online service is for taxpayers filing under the following class codes only and who have liabilities during the period of January 2006 to March 2010 and are less than $10,000:
 - Class Code 11 - Restaurant & bars
 - Class Code 13 - Commercial/residential rental of real property
 - Class Code 14 - Rental of tangible personal property
 - Class Code 17 - Retail sales
