NEIGHBORHOOD COMMISSION TO REVIEW NINE GRANT REQUESTS FROM GLENDALE RESIDENTS

WHO: The Citizen's Advisory Commission on Neighborhoods will review nine grants, totaling more than $321,000, which were prepared by Glendale residents. Each neighborhood group will have 20 minutes to present their neighborhood improvement request to the commission.

WHAT: Twice a year, the Neighborhood Grants Program sponsors a process for residents to submit a request for funding of projects, which could include a variety of improvements such as landscaping, repaving of streets, curb and gutter repairs. In the past nine years, $6.6 million has been distributed through neighborhood grants to complete 156 projects.

WHERE: Glendale Adult Center, 5970 W. Brown St.
In meeting room 108

WHEN: 8 a.m. to noon, Saturday, April 22

CONTACT: Kevin Jackson, Neighborhood Partnerships Administrator
Cell phone: 602/826-1359
