Glendale Opens New Ramada Complex at Park

GLENDALÉ, Ariz. – The Glendale Parks and Recreation Department will be having a ribbon cutting ceremony featuring Glendale elected officials to open the new ramada complex at the city's western area regional park.

The ceremony will be held at 8:30 a.m., Wednesday, Sept. 16 at the ramada complex located at 81st Avenue and Bethany Home Road. Mayor Elaine Scruggs and Councilmember Joyce Clark are expected to make comments.

The new complex features 10 covered ramadas, a playground and sand volleyball courts. Each ramada includes nine tables seating eight people each for a maximum of 72 people. Total capacity for the complex is 720. Each ramada has a grill, counter top/serving area and electrical receptacle.

The ramada complex is available for reservations. Fees are $15 per ramada/per hour for Glendale residents, $20 per ramada/per hour for non-residents and $25 per ramada/per hour for commercial rentals. Reservations may be made by calling the Glendale Parks and Recreation Department at 623-930-2820.

The ramada complex is the third phase completed at the 88-acre regional park. Already completed are the basketball courts, a playground, splash pad and BMX/skateboarding facility. The entire development will include an urban fishing lake, baseball/softball fields, two multi-use fields, tennis courts, dog park and trails.
