November Teen Activities at Velma Teague Branch Library

Glendale, Arizona –Velma Teague Branch Library, 7010 N. 58th Ave., is planning the following free activities for young adults, ages 12-18, in November:

Saturday, Nov. 25

Teen Movie Afternoon: “Edward Scissorhands”

Teens, are you looking for something fun to do on a Saturday afternoon? Drop in to the Velma Teague Branch Library, 7010 N. 58th Ave., for popcorn, soda and a movie from 2-4 p.m. on Nov. 25.

Fast becoming a cult classic, “Edward Scissorhands” is a modern-day fairy tale starring Johnny Depp. Edward Scissorhands was made by an inventor who lived in a castle high on a hill. Unfortunately, the inventor died before Edward was finished; poor Edward still had sharp shears of metal for hands. He lived alone in the darkness until one day a kind Avon lady took him home to live with her family. (Edward had an irresistible charm, even if he was not quite perfect.) So began his fantastical adventures in a pastel paradise known as Suburbia.

Registration is not required. Call 623-930-3431 for more information.

Thursday, Nov. 30

Teen Holiday Craft: Gocks (Goth Sock Puppets)

The holidays are coming. Are you wondering what you can give your friend who has almost everything—and you want the gift to be affordable? Well, you can make a unique, one-of-a-kind gock. Gocks are goth sock puppets; or, some might say a “sock puppet gone bad”!

Stop in the Teen Zone at Velma Teague Branch Library, 7010 N. 58th Ave., from 6-7:30 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 30 with just your imagination and creativity—all the supplies you might need will be provided. Supplies include socks, feather beads, safety pins, felt, cloth, pipe cleaners, glue guns, glue sticks and more.

The program is free, but you must RSVP by calling 623-930-3431.
