FUNDING AVAILABLE FOR PERFORMING ARTS PROJECTS HELD IN GLENDALE

Glendale, Ariz. — To motivate, increase and support the performing arts in Glendale, the Glendale Public Art Program is offering up to $4,000 in support funding for theater, dance and music projects and performances held in the city of Glendale.

The program is designed to offer aid for projects open to the Glendale community and may be used to support items such as artist fees, project-related expenses for producing performances and workshops and project-related expenses for cultural exchanges that result in performances.

Those eligible to be part of the program must reside in, or work in partnership with, an organization domiciled with the city's limits. Applicants can include schools, organizations or neighborhood groups with a 501(c)3 status or working with a 501(c)3 organization as its fiscal sponsor (fiduciary agent) and university of college-sponsored projects open to the public and non-credit participants.

The application deadline is 4 p.m., Thursday, March 22. For the complete guidelines, visit www.glendaleaz.com/arts/ArtistOpportunities.cfm. For more information, call 623-930-3557 or 623-930-3547.
