ATTENDEES CAN OVERHAUL A PAIR OF SHOES AT THE VELMA TEAGUE BRANCH LIBRARY EVENT

Glendale, Ariz. — Put some stylish new life into your old shoes at the “Pumps and Paint” event at 2 p.m., Saturday, June 14 at the Velma Teague Branch Library, 7010 N. 58th Ave. in the Storytime Room.

Rejected Thrifts, an online shop based in Phoenix, is offering adults and teens the opportunity to rehab a favorite pair of shoes. Paint, brushes, glitter, fabric and more will be available to revive weary ‘soles.’ All types of shoes can be brought.

Rejected Thrifts is “all about REcreating, REstyling, and REpurposing the Average Jane's closet one REJECTED piece at a time.” This free program is funded by a Glendale Arts Council grant. Registration is required and begins May 14. Call 623-930-3431 or register online at www.glendaleaz.com/Library/LibraryEvents.cfm.
