Getting Your Child Ready to Read Starts with the Littlest Ones

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Parents, do you want to set a foundation for your child’s future success? Foothills Branch Library, 19055 N. 57th Ave., is running a series of free programs on Mondays during September for parents that can do just that.

Learn how simple steps to early literacy can set your child on the path to reading. Research shows that children get ready to read years before they actually start school. This program will give you the tools to help your child learn important skills now so that they can become good readers later.

“Every Child Ready to Read @ the Library – Babies” will be held from 7-8 p.m. on Sept. 11.

“Every Child Read to Read @ the Library – Two and Three Year Olds” will be held from 7-8 p.m. on Sept. 18.

“Every Child Read to Read @ the Library – Four and Five Year Olds” will be held from 7-8 p.m. on Sept. 25.

Reservations are required; call 623-930-3837 for more information and to sign up.
