SPRING TRAINING GAME AT CAMELBACK RANCH – GLENDALE TO BENEFIT SCHOLARSHIP FUND

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Enjoy America’s favorite pastime with your friends and family at the March 18 game at Camelback Ranch – Glendale and Glendale Parks and Recreation’s Youth Scholarship Fund can benefit.

Tickets purchased through a special code for the 1:05 p.m. game between the Los Angeles Dodgers and the LA Angels of Anaheim will provide $5 to the Youth Scholarship Fund for each ticket sold. The fund provides financial help to Glendale kids to participate in parks and recreation programs. The scholarship program is funded through donations from businesses and individuals throughout the Valley.

To purchase tickets for the March 18 game and help Glendale’s youth:

- Visit www.camelbackranchbaseball.com and click "Groups & Suites." Scroll to the bottom of the page to find the link for the “City of Glendale Parks and Rec and Library Services Youth Scholarship Fund.”
- Click the link to purchase tickets using the special code "PARKS" when prompted. Complete your purchase online and your tickets have been reserved!
- Step 3: Prior to game day, you will receive tickets in the mail (or at Will Call if ordered within five days of the game).

Between July 2010 and June 2011 the Youth Scholarship Fund provided 178 children over $6,500 used for parks and recreation programs such as swimming lessons and after-school programs. If you would like to make a private or business donation to the fund, visit www.glendaleaz.com/parksandrecreation or call 623-930-2820.
