COUNCILMEMBER STEVE FRATE APPOINTED VICE MAYOR

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Councilmember Steve Frate has been appointed vice mayor for the city of Glendale.

The City Council selected Frate to the position at its meeting on Tuesday (June 14). The vice mayor performs the duties of the mayor during the mayor's absence.

Frate has served in the position since 2010.

Frate was first elected to the City Council in 2000 and has been re-elected in 2004 and 2008. He represents the Sahuaro District.

City Council guidelines require councilmembers to nominate candidates for vice mayor each year at the first workshop in June.
