GLENDALE PUBLIC LIBRARY HITS THE ROAD TO BRING STORY TIMES TO WESTGATE

Glendale, Ariz. — The Glendale Public Library is taking its show on the road and presenting its popular children’s story time at the Gallery Glendale within the Westgate Entertainment District, 9380 W. Westgate Blvd., Suite D109.

Wee Readers @ Westgate is a program filled with stories, rhymes, finger plays and songs. Activities are geared for children from newborn to five years old held 10:30 to 11 a.m. on the first and third Monday of the month. Each program has a different theme with the June 3 theme being jungle animals.

Located next to Cold Stone Creamery and near Westgate’s family-friendly, Fountain Park, the Gallery Glendale will be home to various art exhibits as well as library functions and special interest classes offered by Glendale Parks, Recreation and Library Services. This community space is made possible through a partnership between the city of Glendale and Westgate Entertainment District. Several events will be featured at this location including music, art and programs for all ages.

“This innovative space gives the library an opportunity to reach out to all members of our community in a fun and interactive way,” said Karen Reed, library manager with the Glendale Public Library System.

“Not only are these pre reader programs packed full of fun and entertainment, they also introduce important early literacy skills to children.”
