Take a stroll in Downtown Glendale along The Bead Trail

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Discover the world in your own backyard and celebrate International Friendship Month in Historic Downtown Glendale. On Thursday, February 21st from 5 to 8 p.m., explore the downtown shops to find beads from around the world as the Glendale Visitor Center presents “That Thursday Thing: The Bead Trail.”

As you travel The Bead Trail, you will collect beads from participating downtown Glendale shops and eateries. At the end of the trail, you will visit The Bead Museum to assemble a beautiful friendship bracelet.

Start the night at the Glendale Visitor Center located at 5800 W. Glenn Drive, Suite 140, to pick up your event map and goodie bag and take a spin on the Visitor Center prize wheel. Enjoy free trolley rides and horsedrawn carriage rides throughout Catlin Court and Old Towne. As you travel the downtown, you will discover unique shopping and delicious dining, at more than 90 specialty shops and ethnic eateries. Live music and entertainment will be located throughout the downtown.

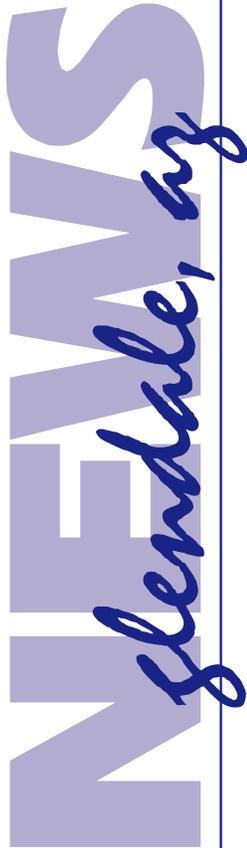

Mark your calendars for the 3rd Thursdays and plan to have a unique and unforgettable experience in Downtown Glendale. For more information, call 623-930-4500 or visit www.visitglendale.com.
