VICE MAYOR, COUNCILMEMBER HOSTING MEETINGS IN THEIR DISTRICTS

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Vice Mayor Steve Frate and Councilmember Norma Alvarez will be holding community meetings in their respective Council districts.

Frate's "Neighborhood Dialogue" will be held from 5:30 - 7 p.m.

Wednesday, Feb. 15 inside Arrowhead Town Center, 77th Avenue and Bell Road. The informal meeting will be held in front of the Sears store on the mall's lower level.

The vice mayor is encouraging residents to stop by and discuss their ideas and suggestions for Glendale. The casual atmosphere allows citizens to stay for a few minutes or longer as time permits.

The Sahuaro District is bounded roughly between Cactus Road and Union Hills Drive.

Alvarez is holding her community meeting at 6 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 23 at Glendale Landmark School, 5730 W. Myrtle Ave. The meeting will be held in the school's gymnasium.

Residents of the Ocotillo District are encouraged to attend and provide input and ask questions on important Glendale topics, including the city budget, the Phoenix Coyotes and the Indian reservation land.

The Ocotillo District is located in the south-central part of Glendale.
