CHILDREN HAVE FUN, SAFE PLACE TO GO DURING WINTER BREAK

Glendale, Ariz. — The holiday break is great for families to get together and celebrate, but with schools closed, parents may wonder what to do with the kids when they are at work. Two, all-day licensed recreation sites available for children solve this dilemma.

One location is open from 6:30 a.m. to 6 p.m., Monday through Friday, Dec. 21 to Jan. 4 at Sahuaro Ranch Elementary School, 10401 N. 63rd Ave. The other location is open from 7 a.m. to 6 p.m, Monday through Friday, Dec. 20 to Jan. 2 at Desert Mirage Elementary School, 8605 W. Maryland Ave. Both locations will be closed Dec. 24, 25 and Jan. 1.

The programs offer children various activities such as arts and crafts, board games, group games and more. Children experience the benefits of a fun, safe and social environment with positive mentorship from caring, adult staff.

The price is $20 per day per child. For more information or to register, call 623-930-2820. This winter break program is provided by the Glendale Parks, Recreation & Library Services Department.
