Youth Drop-In Recreation Program Offered During Winter Intersession Break in Glendale

GLENDALÉ, Ariz. – The Glendale Parks and Recreation Department is offering a drop-in recreation program for youth during the winter intersession break. The program includes recreation activities, arts and crafts, guest speakers and enrichment activities for children grades kindergarten through 8th.

The program will be held from 7:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., Dec. 21-23 and Dec. 28-31 at the O’Neil Recreation Center, 6448 W. Missouri Ave.

The program price is $5 per day for Glendale residents and $8 per day for non-residents. Registration is available Dec. 21-23 and 28-31 onsite at the O’Neil Recreation Center. Preregister is also available Dec. 14-18 in person at the Glendale Parks and Recreation office, 5850 W. Glendale Ave., or by phone at 623-930-2820.

For more information, call Carren Coffman or Pauline Valenzuela at 623-930-4700.
