COUNCILMEMBER JOYCE CLARK HOSTING YUCCA DISTRICT MEETING NOVEMBER 3

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Residents living in the Yucca District can learn about local and citywide projects and services at an upcoming community meeting hosted by Councilmember Joyce Clark.

The meeting will be held at 6:30 p.m. Monday, Nov. 3 at Coyote Ridge Elementary School, 7677 W. Bethany Home Road.

Clark will be joined by city staff from Glendale’s Fire Department, Economic Development Department and the Glendale Municipal Airport. Representatives from those departments will provide updates on various activities and projects they are working on. In addition, Glendale Police Department employees will give informative presentations to residents on the department’s various tactics they use to solve crimes.

All of the speakers will also be available to answer questions.

In addition to the meeting, residents living in the Yucca District can stay up to date on city events, activities and projects by subscribing to the Yucca Weekly Bulletin, Clark’s weekly e-newsletter. To receive the bulletin, visit www.glendaleaz.com and sign up for “Glendale Bulletins” under the online services menu.
