LOCAL GLENDALE LEADER APPOINTED TO BOARDS OF VALUABLE COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS

GLENDALE, Ariz. -- Pam Kavanaugh, Assistant City Manager of Glendale, has been elected to serve on two high profile community boards.

Elected to the Board of Directors of the Arizona City/County Management Association (ACMA) earlier this year, Kavanaugh will serve a two-year term that will expire in 2008.

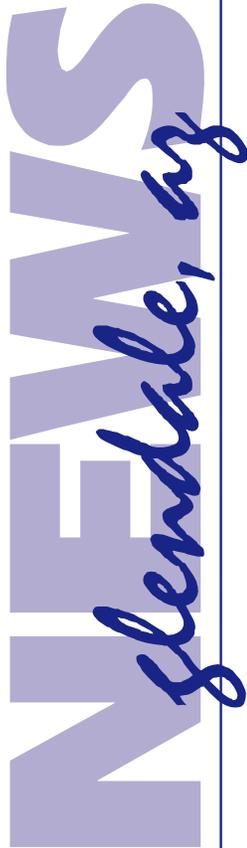

Established in 1954, ACMA is a professional association of more than 260 local government managers and staff throughout the state that focuses on business development and information sharing, while promoting professional local government management.

Kavanaugh was also recently appointed as a board member for Sun City Animal Rescue, a local agency that provides loving, compassionate care to unwanted dogs and cats of the northwest valley.

The agency strives to give comfortable, temporary housing, medical care, vaccinations, food and companionship to homeless companion animals that need help finding loving, permanent families.

Prior to Kavanaugh's appointment to the board, she was a volunteer with the agency for two years. She is the proud owner of Sammi, an Australian Kelpie that she adopted from the organization.

Kavanaugh holds a B.A. in Political Science from Portland State University and a Masters of Public Administration from Arizona State University.
