CITY'S IMPORTANT ROLE WITH LUKE AIR FORCE BASE

GLENDALE, Ariz. -- Luke Air Force Base makes a powerful statement about our country's freedom, security and the dedication of thousands of men and women to protecting our families, friends and neighbors.

Glendale is honoring that dedication by sharing with the community the latest information on the city's ongoing efforts to protecting the mission of this important Glendale partner.

These efforts are now enhanced with the new-and-improved Luke Air Force Base informational pages on Glendale's Web site.

The new Luke pages can be found at www.GlendaleAz.com. Just click on the Luke link under "Other Useful Links" on the homepage or click on the "Office of the Mayor" Web pages, which also can be found to the left on the homepage.

Featuring an updated design and new photography, Glendale's Luke Air Force Base links will provide citizens updated information on state statutes and critical issues relating to the base, and Glendale efforts and community programs geared toward supporting our troops. Online visitors will also learn about the strong economic impact Luke has on Glendale as well as the entire state.
