DOWNTOWN GLENDALE WELCOMES YOU TO SHOP, DINE AND SHOW!

GLENDALE, Ariz. -- Shine up your saddle shoes, fluff up your poodle skirts and rev your engines for some real greased lightning at Glendale's holiday hot rod show on Friday, Nov. 30 and Saturday, Dec. 1.

Be ready to revel in both the new and nostalgic in Glendale's downtown shopping and dining district as the Glendale Visitor Center presents Shop, Dine and Show.

Classic cars, live entertainment, Santa Claus, 1.5 million holiday lights, art, shopping, carriage rides and fabulous food will all come together for a nostalgic occasion. Everyone is encouraged to come dressed in their poodle skirts, denim jeans and converse, where they will be taken back in time for a memorable evening or two.

There is something for all who attend, including a chance for children to visit with Santa Claus and a chance to win one-of-a-kind purses designed and hand crafted from vintage record albums and sleeves courtesy of ZinGa'ro Home Accents.

A wide array of music, children's activities in Glendale Murphy Park, 12 blocks of specialty shopping and ethnic eateries, and an exhibit and sale by the Arizona Art Alliance will be available for all to enjoy! There will also be a hot rod car show featuring dozens of vintage cars.

The entertainment lineup includes the Stan Devereaux Trio, Grady on Keyboards and Aaron the Magician on Friday. Grady on Keyboards, Hello Swindon, and Stiltwalker will be performing on Saturday.

The Bead Museum's first Holiday Bead Artists' Sale will be in the Bead Room of Glendale Civic Center Annex. Admission is free! The Bead Museum is located at 5754 W. Glenn Drive
