The Flowers are Blooming in Downtown Glendale for “That Thursday Thing!”

Glendale, AZ - With Spring just around the corner, the flowers are blooming in Historic Downtown Glendale.

People can come to downtown Glendale on Thursday, March 16 and create a fresh flower bouquet, listen to smooth jazz and stroll through the historic district for March’s That Thursday Thing.

This free event will send you on a journey throughout the downtown to collect flowers and fun gifts. Visitors will also have a chance to listen to soulful jazz at the Glendale Gaslight Inn and can enjoy a free horse drawn carriage ride that will tour the beautiful Historic Catlin Court.

The evening will begin at the Glendale Visitor Center where shoppers will pick up the beginning pieces of the flower bouquet and a walking map that lists the flower and gift stops along the “Petal Path”. The evening will end at Glendale Flowers, with the opportunity to put the final touches on a beautiful flower bouquet.

Every third Thursday from October to May is “That Thursday Thing” in Historic Downtown Glendale. This month’s “That Thursday Thing” theme is “Petal Power” on March 16, 2006 from 6 – 9 p.m. and will celebrate the arrival of spring by creating a flower bouquet.
