“THAT THURSDAY THING” IS BACK AND BETTER THAN EVER!

GLENDALE, Ariz. -- You don't have to go far to find fun and entertainment during the 3rd Thursday of the month. That Thursday Thing is here again in Historic Downtown Glendale, and with all of the new additions it couldn't start any better than with a costume bash on October 18th.

You will find a plentiful supply of, specialty shops and boutiques, tempting ethnic food and classic wine tasting. Music will fill the downtown along the sidewalks of Old Towne and the front porches of Catlin Court. Enjoy trolley rides and a wide array of interactive activities including a photo costume booth, henna art and a caricature artist. What a perfect way to spend an evening with your friends and family, not to mention the remarkable savings!

The fun and excitement lasts until May 2008, so come join the fun and see a side of Glendale that you have never seen before. The new hours of 5-8pm make this monthly occasion more convenient for everyone and the experience will be one for all families to remember. So mark your calendars and get ready for the costume contest kick off event on October 18th.

Start your evening at the Glendale Visitor Center (5800 W. Glenn Drive #140) to pick up the event map, goodie bag and take a spin on our prize wheel. Free admission and free parking. For more information visit www.VisitGlendale.com or call (623) 930-4500.
