GLENDALE, Ariz. – The Glendale City Council has selected Councilmember Manny Martinez as its vice mayor.

Martinez has been serving as vice mayor since 2007, but recently adopted City Council guidelines now require them to nominate members for vice mayor each year at the first workshop in June.

The City Council voted to keep Martinez as vice mayor at its meeting on Tuesday (June 9).

Martinez is the councilmember that represents the Cholla District, located in the northern part of Glendale. He was appointed to the council in October 1996, elected in March 1998 and re-elected in 2002 and 2006.
